Rules for the FIG World Cup Competitions and Series in Artistic Gymnastics

New Rules
Valid for 2011

1. GENERAL PRINCIPLES

FIG World Cup Series in Artistic Gymnastics will be composed every year of the following two categories:

- The A Category (World Cup)
- The B Category (Challenger Cup)

The A Category consists of a min of 3 events and a total of max 4 events each for Individual Apparatus Competitions and for All Around Competitions. These are best events, staged in attractive and well known cities and venues, with guaranteed TV coverage and a limited participation. Their aim is to showcase the Worlds very best gymnasts in a media and public friendly surrounding.

The B Category consists of a min of 3 events and a maximum to be determined by the Presidential Commission each for Individual Apparatus Competitions and All Around Competitions. These are major FIG events with a broader participation. They are aimed at supporting the affiliated federations in developing gymnastics worldwide through the organization of high standard FIG international events.

At each event, the gymnasts will have the opportunity to win World Cup Points which will count towards the respective World Cup Ranking Lists. These World Cup Ranking Lists will begin with the 1st event of the year (i.e. per Category and for Individual Apparatus and All Around Competitions) and will end with the last event of the year (i.e. per Category and for Individual Apparatus and All Around Competitions). The best competitors from the B Category World Cup Ranking Lists (i.e. Individual Apparatus and All Around) will qualify for the next years A Category Individual Apparatus and All Around Competitions

2. RIGHTS AND ADVANTAGES OF FIG WORLD CUP COMPETITIONS

- Each event may use the official title of "FIG World Cup Competition XXX".
- Each event will contribute Points to the respective World Cup Ranking Lists.
- Each event will be considered as an official FIG event.
- Each event will be listed in the official FIG calendar of events.
- The events dates will be protected by FIG.
- Each event will be announced in the FIG World of Gymnastics Magazine.
- Each event will be published on the FIG Official Website (www.fig-gymnastics.com)
- Each event (calendar) will be published and updated regularly on all FIG Communication platforms
- The Organizing Committee of each event will be entitled to use the services of the FIG Offices to send information to all FIG Member Federations by mail and/or through the official FIG Website
- The Organizing Committee of each event will be entitled to use the FIG Logo on official communications, posters, and programme. This does not apply for any selling item (i.e. T-Shirts, souvenirs, etc.)
- The Organizing Committee of each event will be entitled to require assistance from the official MAG and WAG Technical Delegate and the FIG EC Member (if appointed).

- Each event will be included in the official FIG result service system (publication of the results on the FIG website).

3. CANDIDATURES AND APPLICATIONS

3.1 Criteria for Approval

Bids for the World Cup Competitions must be received at the FIG Offices by 30th June of the previous year for the following year. The World Cup Competitions for the next season will be assigned by the FIG Presidential Commission in July of the previous year. Candidatures can only be submitted by FIG Member Federations. To be approved, the following minimum requirements must be met:

- All World Cup Competitions must offer competitions for MAG and WAG.
- World Cup Competitions may not be combined with any other Competitions. Nevertheless, it is allowed to organise other non-conflicting competitions before or after the FIG World Cup Competition.
- FIG Member Federations interested in organizing a World Cup Competition must apply in writing to the FIG Offices and complete the appropriate invitation letter and forms provided to them by the FIG as soon as possible, but by no later than 30 June for the following season. Information on the date, the location, the name of the event, the federations which will be invited, the prize money, and the equipment used must be completed.
- Applications must include the name and contact address of the Event Manager and the Media Officer.
- Applications for A Category must include the name and address of the Host Broadcaster and the name of the person in charge of the production.
- The Organizing Member Federation for A Category must offer minimum two different hotel categories for the Delegation members who must pay for their own accommodation and meals. The prices charged for the hotel rooms can not exceed the usual hotel rates.
- The Organizing Member Federation for B Category must offer minimum three different hotel categories, including the Official Hotel and one of them being a "low cost hotel". The prices charged for the hotel rooms can not exceed the usual hotel rates.
- The Organizing Member Federation must pay a non-refundable application fee to the FIG of CHF 5'000.- for an A Category and CHF 2'000.- for a B Category. This fee must accompany the invitation letter and forms. The application fee will only be returned in full, should the application not be considered by the FIG Presidential Commission. Should the dates or location be changed by the Organizing Committee after assignment by the Presidential Commission, an other application fee equivalent to the amount mentioned above must be paid to the FIG.
- The Organizing Member Federation applying for an A Category must pay a deposit of CHF10'000 to the FIG. This deposit must accompany the invitation letter and forms. The deposit will be returned in full, should the FIG decide not to assign an A Category to the Organizing Member Federation. The deposit will also be returned in full after the A Category, provided all conditions of these Rules are fulfilled. Infractions and/or non-fulfilment of conditions set out in these Rules will result in the FIG not returning the deposit in full. The deposit will be lost in full (i.e. stay with FIG) if the dates, the city, or the venue of the A Category are changed by the Organizing Member Federation or if the A Category cannot be organised by the Organizing Member Federation (see also point 12.3 of these Rules).

- Late applications, applications which are not complete, or are not accompanied by the application fee are refused.

3.2 Assignment of World Cup Competitions by the FIG Presidential Commission

There are two Categories of Tournaments: A Category and B Category.

Each of the A and B Categories have a limited number of Individual Apparatus Competitions and All Around Competitions:

A Category

- Individual Apparatus Competitions: Min 3 and max 4 per year (the best 3 shall count to determine the World Cup Champion)
- All Around Competitions: Min 3 and max 4 per year (the best 3 shall count to determine the World Cup Champion)

B Category

- Individual Apparatus Competitions and All Around Competitions: while the mini. Number is 3, the max. number is not limited, but will depend on the assignments made by the FIG Presidential Commission who will evaluate the candidatures received.

Note: should there not be a minimum of 3 valid applications for A and B Categories by the deadline of 30 June, no Artistic Gymnastics World Cup Series will be held in the following year in the respective Category.

Preference will be given to the leading Tournaments with:

- the highest media and public impact
- the highest prize money and other advantages provided to the gymnasts and participating member federations
- experienced and reliable Organising Member Federations and Organising Committees
- traditional and worldwide established tournaments
- a good integration in the FIG Competition Calendar
- attractive and large venues, located in famous leading cities of the World
- venue capacity of min. 3'000 to 5'000 seats.

Upon confirmation of the proposed invitation letter and forms from the FIG Offices, the organizers must invite at least four months prior to the date of the event the eligible Member Federations

The respective Technical Committees will propose at least 3 months prior to the date of the event one MAG and one WAG Technical Committee member or one MAG and one WAG expert (to be approved by the FIG President) to serve as MAG and WAG Technical Delegates. These Technical Delegates must receive all information from the Organizing Committee and they must be present at the event. The MAG and WAG Technical Delegates will serve as President of the Superior Jury.

4. RULES AND REGULATIONS

The competition must be organized under the following FIG rules, as valid in the year of the competition, except for any deviation mentioned in these World Cup Rules for Artistic Gymnastics:

- Statutes
- Technical Regulations
- Code of Points

11. JURIES

The Apparatus Jury (or Juries) must be composed as follows:

- A Category: 2 D judges, 5 E judges, plus 1 Supervisor
- B Category: 2 D judges, min. 4 E judges, plus 1 Supervisor.

The number of Apparatus Juries (judges' panels) may be decided by the organizing member federation depending on the number of participating competitors and judges. Not more than one judge per Federation per panel will be permitted (except for Time and Line Judges)

The Apparatus Juries are set up by a draw from the judges present at the event. The draw must be directed by the MAG and WAG Technical Delegates. The participating Member Federations must send minimum one qualified judge for MAG if they participate with male gymnasts and one qualified WAG judge if they participate with female gymnasts.

The Organizing Member Federation is responsible that there are enough FIG brevetted judges present with the appropriate valid category of brevet for their function. Should there not be sufficient judges as per the on-line nominative registration, the Organizing Member Federation must propose to the FIG for approval the name of neutral additional judges to complete the panels (plus 2 reserves, 1 man and 1 woman). These judges, once approved, have to be invited at the cost of the Organizing Member Federation. Should the Organizing Member Federation fail to propose names for additional judges, the FIG Office in consultation with the TC Presidents concerned will invite these judges at the cost of the Organizing Member Federation.

12. MEDIA REQUIREMENTS

12.1 Television

For Tournaments of A Category, television coverage is compulsory. For Tournaments of B Category, the same requirements will apply provided that a television production is available even if not compulsory.

The Organizing Member Federation must guarantee the production of a basic feed (international signal) at least for the Final rounds. This feed must conform to professional standards. A clean feed is required which must include the official competition standings, billboards and results but without any added commercial inserts.

It is acknowledged and agreed that all National television rights remains with the Organizing Member Federation.

The organizing member federation must deliver to the FIG within 24 hours after the end of the competition, the video master of the basic feed on Digi Belatcam PAL tape. These footage are supplied to FIG free of charge. Production costs and postage are at the cost of the OM. FIG may use these tapes at its discretion.

12.2 Television and Marketing Rights

TV and reproduction rights together with publicity (including logo and insignia) and marketing rights concerning FIG events are the property of the FIG.

In order to extend the exposure of the World Cup Series, the TV rights of the 2011 World Cup Artistic Gymnastics Series will be distributed as a package (All Events together) by the FIG Office. The total possible revenue of the International television sales will be shared by the Organizing Member Federation on an equal basis.

12.3 Results

The results of the competition, signed by the respective MAG and WAG Technical Delegates must be sent to the FIG Offices by e-mail immediately after the end of the respective competitions.

The Results and the updated FIG World Cup Ranking List will be published on the FIG web site within 24 hours after the end of the respective competitions to the conditions that the Organizing Member Federation respects the following process:

12.3.1 Before the competition (7 days):

The FIG Office will send the event's ID, the list of registered gymnasts with their respective licence number and a template of the electronic results file (empty) to the federation who organize the competition.

12.3.2 After the competition:

The organizer must return to the FIG at the end of the competition:

A copy of all detailed results (qualifications & finals) in PDF format and duly signed by the respective MAG and WAG Technical Delegates for archival purposes only.

The organizer must also return to the FIG maximum 24 hours after the competition:

An electronic file in XLS or CSV format on 8 columns using the same structure as the template previously sent by the FIG Office including necessary information for automatic processing of results and awarding points for the World Cup.

If the above deadlines are not respected or if the FIG does not receive any electronic results file in the format specified in paragraph 2 above, the Organizing Member Federation's deposit of CHF10'000 will be lost in full.

13. DOPING CONTROLS

15. WINNER OF THE ANNUAL WORD CUP RANKING LIST

A Cup will only be granted for A Category. No Cup will be awarded for B Category.

15.1 A Category

The winner of the annual A Category World Cup Ranking per Individual Apparatus and All Around is the gymnast with the highest number of points after the last respective events as follows:

If 4 A Category World Cup Competitions (i.e. 4 for Individual Apparatus and 4 for All Around) take place per year, the best 3 count.

If 3 A Category World Cup Competitions (i.e. 3 for Individual Apparatus and 3 for All Around Competitions) take place per year, all points count.

A special award ceremony must be held at the last respective A Category World Cup Competition of the year (i.e. for Individual Apparatus and for All Around) in which the A Category World Cup winners for the Individual Apparatus and for the All Around receive a Cup.

In case of a tie in the respective A Category World Cup Ranking Lists (i.e. for Individual Apparatus or for All Around) after the last respective competitions of the year, the tie will not be broken.

15.2 B Category

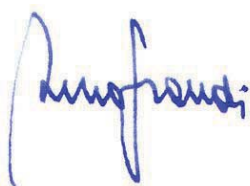

The B Category World Cup Ranking Lists for Individual Apparatus and All Around Competitions must include all respective B Category competitions.

Only the best three results per gymnast (i.e. 3 for the Individual Apparatus and 3 for the All Around Competitions) count for the total Ranking.

In case of a tie in the respective B Category World Cup Ranking List (i.e. for Individual Apparatus or for All Around) after the last respective competition of the year, the tie will not be broken.

These Rules have been decided by the Executive Committee at its meeting in Lausanne in February 2010.
